CURRICULUM VITAE

Professor Anita C.S. Hokken-Koelega, MD, PhD

Date of birth: 28-3-1954

Education and degrees

1971-1978	Medical school, Erasmus University, Rotterdam
1978-1982	Residency, training in Pediatrics Sophia Children's Hospital, Rotterdam, The Netherlands
1994	Ph.D. Thesis cum laude: "Growth failure in children with renal disease: Incidence, pathophysiology, new perspectives with growth hormone therapy", Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands,

Postgraduate positions

1982-1983	Supervisor Inpatient Clinics (0-15 years) Sophia Children's Hospital, Rotterdam, The Netherlands
1983-1987	Pediatric Consultant Regional Hospital Berekum, Ghana
1987-1989	Clinical and research fellow Pediatric Endocrinology Sophia Children's Hospital, Rotterdam, The Netherlands
1989-present	Senior Pediatric Endocrinologist Sophia Children's Hospital, Erasmus University Rotterdam
1989-present	Supervisor of Endocrine Research Sophia Children's Hospital, Erasmus University Rotterdam
1997-present	Director Dutch Growth Research Foundation (DGRF)
1998 -present	Professor of Pediatric Endocrinology Erasmus University Medical Center, Rotterdam

Scientific fields of interest

- Endocrine and metabolic effects of acute and chronic diseases in neonates and children
- Pathophysiology of growth disorders and the long-term consequences of growth disorders and the effects of growth hormone treatment in children, especially in children born small for gestational age (SGA) and in children with Prader Willi Syndrome
- Developmental origins of adult diseases